

I'm very concerned about the proposed changes to media ownership regulations; informed decision-making is essential to a democracy, and this is not possible when information is controlled by a very few self-interested businesses. Please do not approve the proposed changes.